We all want great relationships, but how do we grow them?

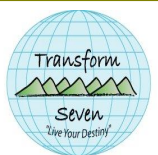

This one day workshop with Tony Stoltzfus will:

- Give you keys to understanding yourself and how you can better relate to those around you.
- Give accelerated pathways for your personal growth.
- Set the stage for discipleship that is transformational for both you and others.
- Show ways of developing the relationships you have and building new ones that can form quickly to a mutually enriching level.
- Give you insight and skills into Biblical life Peer Coaching.
- Provide part of Level One Coach training.

Tony Stoltzfus is one of the leading Master Coach Trainers in the world today and is coming to Australia for the first time in July 2012. Tony heads up Coach 22, which is a highly respected and sought after Coach training ministry. He is based in Redding California and is involved in coaching and training at the Bethel Church with Bill Johnson and the team. He has an understanding and great capacity to unlock and enable people to experience the Power of Authentic Growth-Centered relationships that transforms us and our relationships to those around us.

Who Would Benefit from this Workshop?

- Everyone who wants more relationships that are enriched and fulfilling both horizontally with peers around them and vertically engaging with God.
- Everyone who wants demonstrated skills and "take homes" that makes a difference in the quality of relating to people. Not just the talk but the walk.
- Everyone who wants tools for growing and discipling people.
- Everyone who is interested in exploring coaching.
